Experience the Divine
Through Selfless Service and Meditation

A discourse by
Shri Ravi Kohli

“Our perfection is but a breath away... In that breath, we can resolve to be of service to all who are in need. In that breath, we can open our hearts to love God, love all humanity, and love all life forms in creation. All it takes is a breath of sincere desire to reach our spiritual goals.”

Sant Rajinder Singh Ji Maharaj

Please join us to hear Shri Ravi Kohli elaborate the topic during the satsang.

Shri Kohli is a businessman in New York City and has been practicing meditation for over 20 years. He has been also serving as a dedicated volunteer in Science of Spirituality and leading the SOS meditation center in Long Island, NY, under the guidance of present Spiritual Master, Sant Rajinder Singh Ji Maharaj. His tremendous zeal for meditation and selfless service has inspired many people on the path of meditation. This will be his first visit to Minneapolis.
